PRESIDENT'S REPORT

With the end of Winter near and Spring around the corner, it's time to make plans for the Summer. Specifically, that means it's time to finalize your plans to attend our Reunion XIII in Colorado Springs, August 7 – 13. Troops you served with on the battlefield will be there and want to see you; and, you want to see them. If you've not been before, I can testify that our reunions are lots of fun and, at the same time, are therapeutic. This one will be no exception. And, it will coincide with the 50th Anniversary of our departure from Ft. Carson for Vietnam in 1966. That makes for a lot of remembering and catching up to do for those who will be there.

There will be lots to occupy your time. We'll spend a few minutes on Thursday & Friday to cover necessary association business. A special event on Tuesday, golf if you wish & free pizza on Wednesday, the Banquet on Friday evening lead up to the most solemn and meaningful event of the reunion. The Memorial Service during which we remember and honor those we lost in Vietnam, Cambodia, Iraq, and Afghanistan will be Saturday morning with a BBQ that night to close the reunion. It will be a full week, if you wish it to be. So, come early and stay late. Remember: You must register with the hotel and you must register separately with our Association.

5th Squadron 7th Cavalry troopers are in final prep for deployment back to Europe for about 6 months. Their performance during the earlier 3 month deployment in training with allied units was very successful and there is no question this deployment with other allies will be equally successful. We remain most proud of our troopers and their leaders and ask that you keep them in your thoughts and prayers.

Jane joins me in wishing each of you the best of health and good fortune. See you in Colorado Springs. Faithfully and Garry Owen!

“KRAZY” Karl’s Report

Hey All – Reunion XIII is here. You should have your hotel reservation by now. NOW it is time to make your 5/7 association reservations and let us know how many meals to order. The reunion reservation form is included with this newsletter. Fill it out and send it to Royce Vick in Fort Worth, Texas. His address is on the form. The reservation form lets us know what reunion events you'll be attending. It does not reserve a room for you. You have to do that directly with the hotel. That info is also included in the newsletter. See you all in Colorado Springs.

Hosts for the California reunion: Jack & Ann Boyt.
Get out of the picture Larry.

Carol & I have had a busy month, actually 6 weeks starting with the weekend trip to Colorado Springs and then the month in Arizona, California & Mexico. No we didn't see any banditos in Mexico. Actually there were more cars registered in the US than in Mexico at the resort and in town. If you want good fresh shrimp, Puerto Penasco, Mexico is the place. Inexpensive also.

The Phoenix mini reunion was success with 14 troopers and many wives in attendance. Tom & Vivia Spalding are great hosts and I want to say thank you to both. This was the first time that George Dean had attended any of the 5/7 functions. He was able to talk with his hooch buddies, Dick Baker, Mike Silvernagle & Pat Fox; all are C/66 troopers. We also had the honor of John Monahan, son of 1st LT Jack Monahan A/69-70, joining us. Jack passed away in January 2015. You will find a picture of the attendees someplace in the newsletter.

The California mini reunion was held on the yacht Mauritania. It is an 80 foot yacht which carries 40 persons comfortably and is owned by John “Jack” Boyt. Jack was a 1st LT with C & E companies in 1968. Jack took us on a 4 ½ hour outing through the Port of Los Angles. We went by the Battleship Iowa and had a delicious catered lunch on board. During the trip we stopped at the LA Fire Station for a tour of their fireboat. Mick Davis D/68-69, a retired LA fireman, arranged a tour of fireboat #2. Fireboat #2 is the second largest in the country. Those of you in California missed out on a super great mini reunion.

Just one more little bit of information. If you haven't been to the VA – GO! NOW! Be Honest with yourself, as there is still some of Vietnam left with us.

Through much forceful persuasion I have agreed to run for the position of association 1st Vice President again. The floor is still open for nominations.

YOUR FIRST REUNION?

Everyone has apprehensions about their first reunion. What do I expect? What do they do? Will it bring back nightmares? For most it will put them to rest. Are meetings mandatory? NO! Will there be a lot of standing in formation? No, we got over that, years ago. Will I recognize anyone? Maybe not at first but once you see their name tags and realize we've all aged you'll be able to pick up on conversations from years ago. How many will be there? Last reunion we had over 600 attend including families with children and grandchildren. We're hoping for that many and more this reunion. It's a great time to rekindle old friendships and make new ones.

Will I want to go to the next reunion? Yes, that's why our numbers keep growing at future reunions. Will my wife or girlfriend be left out? No, in fact the women have this amazing ability to meet other women and bond like they've known each other for ever. Plus she'll find out how other wives and girlfriends put up with us old vets and it will make the reunion all that much more meaningful for her. Do I have to worry about remembering someone's rank? No, we don't worry about rank at all. Your name badge will have your name and company and year you arrived in theater on it. We're all civilians at the reunion.

What is the best way to get to the reunion? Drive if you're near or if you just love driving. Flying into Denver is cheaper than flying into the Colorado Springs airport. But Denver is 80 miles away from our hotel in Colorado Springs so a rental car is an option or you can take the shuttle at the airport. Check out the following website to get the latest times and rates: <https://www.coloradoshuttle.com/>.

How long do I stay? Our room rate is protected for three days before and after the reunion week so you can take advantage and make the most of your stay. You will wish the reunion lasted longer. What about people that served in different years than I? They did the same type of hardships as you did, different time only. We are all a lot more alike than most realize, different than most of the public, but definitely more alike.

I went to my first reunion not knowing if I would stay a day or a week I stayed the week and have made every reunion since. We have them every two years. As we age we need to think about not putting things off until later and that goes for this reunion. Sign up now; you don't want you to miss out. I don't like crowds but I love the groups at the reunions, they are like me.

The hospitality room is the main gathering spot for all of our reunions and this one is huge with a wall of glass looking directly at Cheyenne Mountain and Pikes Peak. It opens every day at 6 AM and stays open all day until midnight. A free continental breakfast will be served in the hospitality room every morning from 6:30 to 9:00 AM. You can also eat in the hotel restaurants. Your meals there are discounted by 15% if you have your 5/7 name tags with you. The bar in the hospitality room is open all day from morning till midnight. A donation of a dollar or more will allow you to order up any of the available beverages including bottled water, soft drinks, beer, wine and mixed drinks. One hard rule for the hospitality room is that all beverages must be consumed in the hospitality room.

Make sure you check the schedule every day so you know what activities will take place. We're planning a great live musical entertainment and dinner on Tuesday night; a golf outing on Wednesday morning and afternoon; a ladies only coffee and tea with General Edmond's wife, Jane, on Wednesday morning; a free pizza night on Wednesday night; battalion meetings on Thursday and Friday mornings to elect officers and vote on the next reunion location; a Banquet on Friday evening; a memorial service on Saturday morning to honor our fallen comrades; and another less formal banquet on Saturday evening to wrap up the week and raffle off some great prizes. Checking the calendar of events each morning will help keep you aware of each day's events.

There will be a PX at the reunion where a variety of 5/7 merchandise will be available including men's and women's polo shirts, sweat shirts, long and short sleeve shirts and lots of pins and badges. Plus Charlie Baker's book "Grey Horse Troop" will be available as well as the "Commitment and Sacrifice DVDs. Check out the list of PX items in this newsletter and that will give you a good idea of all the things that will be in the PX.

There will also be a memorabilia room where photos and items brought back from Nam are on display. There will be a copier in the memorabilia room to make copies of photos and such for free. This is YOUR reunion and will be better than any other reunion you have ever attended. Didn't get anything from Nam through the hospital trip? I did not either but others did and theirs will be in the memorabilia room. We invite you to bring your remembrances to share with others. Every reunion we end up storing more than we brought as people leave items for others to share. If you wish to pick up your items at the end of reunion, we will put a sticker on them and please pick them up on Saturday afternoon before we start the packing up at about 4:00 PM. Otherwise, they will be at the next reunion wherever it is.

Looking forward to seeing everyone there.

B Company 1970 Mini Reunion in Saline, Texas October 2015

Letter

Hello "D" Company Troopers, hope that many of you are planning to attend the reunion in Colorado, if only for a few days. It's always been a great time seeing our "fox hole" buddies. With this being the 50th year since the 5/7th deployment, it will be special. We always have a great turnout at the reunion, especially "D" Company; you make the reunion what it is today.

There are some of our brothers who cannot attend and are struggling with their health or other issues. If you know them, take a moment and call or send a card to let them know we haven't forgotten what they did - what we all did in Vietnam.

See you all in Colorado!

Garry Owen,

Neil Meyer, D Co. Trustee

Standing Middle Row: Norman Lloyd, Mac Coffman, Eldon Erlenbach, Bobbie Kihara, Greg penny, John LaDuke, J.W. Shiring

On October 15, 2015 The Grand Saline Sun newspaper ran a full two-page spread on the 7th annual B Company (1970) reunion that Billy Woodrum hosted on his property in Saline Texas. These are our fellow troopers that fought the battle of Shakey's hill in 1970. Each of the reunion attendees was interviewed for the article. Multiple photos were displayed including the wives that attended. The full article can be found on our www.cav57.org website. Also check out the 5/7 Cavalry Association on Facebook.

Danny Grinder, E Company, 1968-69, is in the Memphis VA Hospital. He'll be there for some time, maybe long enough that he will not be able attend the reunion. He can be reached at 1-501-352-7506 and would appreciate hearing from people.

Cards send to: VAMC, 1030 Jefferson Ave, Memphis, TN 38104

Denver Car Rental – If you are going to fly into Denver and rent a car – DON'T DO IT AT THE AIRPORT. You need to pick an offsite rental. Take a taxi to somewhere other than the Denver Airport. The local tourist tax will eat you up. One member who has already made reservations said he saved $40 per day by going downtown to rent his car. There is a shuttle from Denver Airport to Colorado Springs stopping at a half dozen hotels which is $50 each way.

Reunion Golf Outing: Wednesday, August 17, 2016

The Golf Outing takes place at the Cheyenne Shadows Golf Course at Ft. Carson. Arrangements have been made to get all players on the base without any hassle. However we need the names of the golfers one week ahead of time so you can be cleared to get on the course. The $30 fee includes a golf cart for every 2 players. Lunch is available for $11.50/ person. The hole in one prize is a $20,000 travel package. Other trophies and prizes will be awarded for closet to the pin, etc. The golf course has clubs to rent: half sets for $10.00 and premium sets for $25.00. More details will be available when checking in at Reunion registration. Sign up early to reserve your spot. To make sure you have a spot check the box on the reunion registration form and e-mail Don Shipley now to reserve your place: 57don@24kttravel.com

GRAY HORSE TROOP FOREVER SOLDIERS

From his perspective as the Battalion Operations Officer, Charlie Baker gives a first-hand account of 5/7th Cav as it fought its way into Hue during Tet of 1968, cleared the NVA away from the perimeter at Khe Sahn, and pursued the enemy into the infamous A Shau Valley.

He provides the big picture that 5/7th Cav veterans did not get while they were fighting for survival down at squad level.

Being embedded with 5/7th Cav in Iraq in 2005 provides the framework for his recalling the various Vietnam battles.

He is blunt about the human costs of war. Baker writes in simple language, directed beyond the military reader to all who are interested in the Cold War Era.

Gray Horse Troop is available on Amazon, and in Kindle. For an autographed copy, contact Charlie directly by email at cbaker611@aol.com; or at (904) 923-5115.

It's that time of the year again to get serious about making your reunion reservations. The hotel reservations are way ahead of our reunion reservations.

I always vacation in Colorado in July and August. I will be leaving for Colorado on July 26 so make sure I receive your reunion reservation form by that date.

Our Reunion XIII reservation form is designed to help you and those planning the events. Even though pizza and the ladies coffee are free we need to know whether you will participate or not. In the past those that indicate they will attend the free pizza is no where near the number that shows up. We have to place early orders due to the amount served. Please encourage your spouse to attend the coffee.

Our Tuesday night event that will be held in the hotel is going to be a fun night of entertainment and good food. The Flying W will perform and we will be featuring a nice Mexican Dinner with multiple choices.

I'm hopeful this will be a record attendance. Encourage those that have not attended to show up.
