PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Summer is upon us and Memorial Day was commemorated recently. To represent our Association and honor the memory of our fallen brothers-in-arms Mary and Joe McVeigh once again served on behalf of all of us by making and bringing a lovely wreath to the Vietnam Memorial Wall. Joe also joined Alan Wilenken to serve as our wreath presenters during another dignified and stirring memorial ceremony. Cliff Wheeler, Mike Sprayberry and his wife, Julie Kink, whose brother's name is among those on the Memorial Wall, were also there and perhaps others from our Association. We must never forget those who gave all in service to our country during a long and difficult war.

Planning continues for our next reunion in Pittsburgh and many of you have already made hotel reservations. We urge you to make plans to be there for what promises to be another memorable gathering of our special band of brothers. If you haven't reserved your room I encourage you to do so soon.

A new and important book, Hue 1968, by Mark Bowden, author of Blackhawk Down, was published on June 6. This new work adds greatly to the history of our battalion which fought to retake the old imperial capital city in February 1968, along with the 2/12 Cav fighting north of Hue and the Marines and ARVN who were fighting south of the city and inside the ancient Citadel.

This campaign was one of the bloodiest and most intense fights of the entire Vietnam War and became a major political turning point. Bowden interviewed lots of soldiers and Marines plus Vietnamese fighting with and against us to gain critical insights into what the fighting was really like. He also offers important insights from the level of senior military and political officials about the military strategy and the politics involved in decisions that were made at the time and later. This combination of sources gives Bowden a multidimensional perspective no other author has yet provided into this part of our war.

It is available at popular Internet sites as well as local book stores.

Bowden is on a nationwide tour to publicize his book. His schedule is available along with other information at <https://www.hue1968.com/>. You might consider going to meet him if he comes to your town. He has sold the rights to produce an eight-ten hour TV mini-series so you can look for that too at some future date.

I recently received a note and photo from Jim Wilson. Jim is a veteran of the 5/7 Cavalry and served in B Company 1967/68. Jim and his daughter, Jaime, were visiting Arlington National Cemetery and took this photo of the grave marker of another of our 5/7 Cav veterans, Bob Trimble, (B Co 67/68) who passed in October 2015.

Have a great summer. I hope to see you on November 10 when we gather again in DC to celebrate Veterans Day and to honor our fallen at the Vietnam Memorial Wall the next day. Lest we forget.

Garryowen!

“Krazy” Karl’s Report

REUNION XIV IS GETING CLOSER

You need to make your reservations now. The reason being is the more rooms we reserve the less likely we will have to share the hotel with another function. Again, I want to say that this isn't the Pittsburgh of 30 years ago. I have made my reservations now you make yours. TODAY!

Registration is going to need some new help. A lot of new help. We have made some changes on the process which will expedite matters some, so you won't have to stand in line as long and of course if you don't all come on the same plane, that helps.

Don Shipley has been working his butt off trying to locate as many of our troopers he can. You know we are not getting younger. Contact Don about troopers you shared a foxhole with and give him an idea of where to look.

DC Hotel info is posted at the web site and in this newsletter. Let's get this done also. There are 55 rooms in the block but can be expanded if you make your reservations early enough. We will be having the same Humming Bird Tongue & Thigh of Canary for the entrees of our banquet on 11/10/2017 and they are delicious.

C Company 1966 reunion, Green Bay, WI was attend by 30 troopers and family members. Everybody had a great time. As icing on the cake I gave Wes a ride out to Wisconsin and back and got to hear all of his war stories. He is one amazing man who just turned 80 and acting and feeling like 60. Check out Sheryl Nunez' recap of the reunion and the photos on page 3 of the newsletter.

Membership VP’s Report

Its summer and only a short year until the big reunion in Pittsburgh, PA.

We have updates coming out every week now for all those with an e-mail address that want to keep up with association news and events such as newly located troopers; the 2018 reunion; mini reunions; Memorial Day and Veterans Day info and reports of those passing from our ranks. All our info is free to you. All you need is a computer, notebook, or phone and an e-mail address.

If you are not getting our weekly e-mail updates send me your e-mail address at 57don@24ktravel.com. I'll make sure to add you to the distribution list.

I encourage the company trustees to use our communication software to reach individual members of your company/troop. If you have something you need to get out to your troopers or you're trying to run down some info about a former squad or platoon or company/troop member let me know and we'll work out a way to get the message out. Our ability to communicate with our members as been one of the best features of our association.

Recently I put out a roster to all the company trustees that included all the birth dates we have on record and we have a large number. So, if you receive a birthday greeting from your company trustee you'll know why.

As we are constantly updating the roster for new addresses and contact information we often get new information of members that have passed away. It's not a happy situation when we record a member's status as deceased but it is also no secret that time is taking its toll as we grow older. So make sure you are keeping up with your health checkups. We want you there for the next reunion and the ones to follow.

Important information:

Men with 100% disability: your wife is eligible for insurance through the VA's Champva insurance at no cost to you.

Also note you are eligible for mileage reimbursement if you meet one of the following conditions:

- Veterans with a service connected rating of 30% or greater
- Veterans travelling for treatment of a service related condition
- Veterans receiving a VA pension
- Veterans whose annual income does not exceed the maximum annual VA pension rate
- Veterans travelling for a scheduled compensation and pension examination

All veterans are eligible for the hearing aids from the VA and Glasses. You earned it years ago. If you have not been down to VA, go soon. Every week it seems I talk to someone that says "I'm going to do it someday". One trooper recently located just got checked and was diagnosed with prostate problems. He was rated 100% almost immediately.

Kidney failure is not on the Agent Orange list as yet. Doctors at the VA told me kidney problems of the Vietnam veterans age group are almost epidemic but have not been added as yet.

If you prefer to receive your newsletter via the internet let us know so we can take you off the printed newsletter list. That will help us cut down on the printing bill.

Those of you receiving the newsletter via the internet can check their dues status by sending me (57don@24ktravel.com) or our Treasurer, Dick Baker (Treasurer57cav@gmail.com) an e-mail requesting your dues status.

If you need to update your dues, please make out your checks to 5/7 Cav Association and send to:

C Co 1966/67 Mini Reunion, Green Bay, Wiscon

These mini reunions are a real show of what true friendship and the bond of being a combat Infantryman is all about. Bob Lotto was our host in Green Bay. It's been 15+ years since we last met. But once our conversation started it was like we picked up from talking yesterday. It is truly amazing this friendship & bond. Bob rolled in a little before noon on Tuesday, June 13. He had the hospitality room set up by noon and the party began. Bob had gone to the local restaurants and told them we were coming and we had some great meals. We had great wait staff too. We gave our waitress a tip for her excellent service and she gave some of it back. She said, "this is too much". People in green bay were so cool.

Wednesday morning, we split into two groups one to the Green Bay Heritage place and the others to the National Railroad Museum. The group that went to the museum and saw a lot of history of the BIG steam locomotives. This group also had a short train ride on the property that went alongside the Fox River.

The ladies group toured the Heritage Hill State Historical Park area which is comprised of 4 sites that illustrated the growth of civilization in Northeastern Wisconsin. There is tram service that runs every 20 minutes that takes you to the sites where you can tour and listen to docents describe each area. Part of Fort Howard, a eastern frontier outpost, is located there. There were many original and replica buildings depicting immigrant settlements an early fur trading huts. Some of the structures were transported to this site on barges.

A favorite of the ladies was the Tank Cottage built around 1800 for fur trader Joseph Roi. Later in 1850 Otto Tank purchased the home and added two additional wings to the house for he and his second wife from Holland, Caroline Louise Albertina van der Meulen. She was an avid painter and filled the home with lovely furniture, a piano, and hand painted a beautiful screen for the dining room.

Heritage Hill is a wonderful piece of Wisconsin history. The ladies thoroughly enjoyed their morning there and recommend it to everyone.

After lunch, both groups went to DePere, WI for a 3-hour excursion on the Fox River. The Fox River is one of a few rivers in the US that flows north. The boat had a glass enclosed salon that held about 50 people and an observation deck above where about 30 people could sit and enjoy the day. It was a nice hot sunny afternoon when we left the dock.

After about an hour, the skies started to get grey. The captain turned the boat around and kicked in the second engine. That was the time that everybody's phone sounded a tornado warning; within 15 minutes we were tried up at the dock. That's right we didn't have to be rescued but the bus driver parked in front of the tornado shelter for 20 minutes in case we needed to go in. Yup, it rained and the wind blew.

Wednesday evening, we had a terrific dinner at the Stadium View Sports Bar. After the sports bar, it was back to the H-Room and more lies.

I didn't know 15 combat troopers could tell so many lies. "Top," and I had to leave on Thursday before the Packers Hall of Fame tour. The Green Bay Packers Stadium, Lambeau Field, is in the town of Ashwaubenon, which is on the north side of the Fox River. I think one of our members went to the old stadium in Green Bay trying to find our hotel. He eventually sorted it out.

Everyone had a wonderful time catching up and reliving old, favorite Army & personal stories. Attendees included:

5th Squadron Change of Command Ceremony

Connie and I attended the 5/7 CAV change of command yesterday. The entire ceremony was outstanding. Attendees included the Div CMDR, MG Quintas, the ADC(S) BG Hamilton and the 1st BDE Comdr COL Brooks. Connie and I were invited to join the Reviewing Party for the battalion pass in review in a misting rain. Very well done and the troopers looked great. Amazed at the number of women in a Cavalry Squadron these days.

The new Commander is LTC John Horning and his wife Michelle. He is coming from the Joint Readiness Warfighting Center in Germany. The Squadron will be deploying in a few months to Korea as part of the 1st Brigade, 3ID. A large contingent of the 3d ID, including the CG and the ADC's will be deploying to the mid-east in the fall. In fact a one star will be brought to Ft Stewart to run the show while everyone else is deployed. The Op-tempo is getting high in our Army.

LTC Chris Mahaffey, the outgoing commander, is going to San Antonio as the exec to a three-star in a new headquarters being stood up there. Chris is a native of Pittsburgh and indicated an interest in coming to the reunion next year. I'll stay in touch with him regards the reunion.

LETTERS

Its about that time again.....Veterans Day is right around the corner folks, and once again we will be having our event at the Holiday Inn National Airport in Crystal City (www.hinationalairport.com). The room rate is $114 per night, and rooms are available from Thursday, November 9th through Monday, November 13th 2017.

You can book your room with the hotel by calling toll free (888) 294-5059, or you can call the hotel directly at (703) 684-7200. But make sure to identify yourself as part of the 5/7 Cavalry to ensure you get the special rate. And don't delay, the 55 room block will book fast! Information on the dinner will follow later this summer.

Garry Owen! Cliff Wheeler

I received word from COL Mike Koncezy last night that he has been selected for brigade command. Mike was the Squadron S3 and XO for OIF V (2007-2008) and will be taking command of 434th FA Brigade, a basic training unit at Ft. Sill, OK, in July 2018. Mike and his wife Tamra joined us in Colorado Springs for the reunion last year.

I expect Mike will turn some heads at Ft. Sill in his Stetson and Cav boots. Great news for Mike and Tamra, the Squadron and the Association. GarryOwen! Cliff Wheeler

D Company Troopers, With Memorial Day just passed I'm sure many of us think about those of us who did not return. Especially Hubia Guillory, Daniel Kelly and David Scott. Thanks to Mike Sprayberry and his team and the continuing effort to locate our men in the A Shau Valley.

It came to my attention, from Rob Weeks concerning a Pvt Bruce Graening, if anyone cares to share the incident on 9 March 1967 please contact me or talk to me at Veterans Day. Pvt Graening as one of our POW's from the battalion deserves some recognition. Sadly he has passed, but did escape his captors after 5 days. Pvt Graening was only one of 33 ground force escapes in Viet Nam.

Check your local PBS TV stations in September for a documentary on the Vietnam War by Ken Burns and Lynn Novick. It was 10 years in the making and Ken Burns has done some great stories.

Finally hope to see many of you in Wash. D.C. for Veterans Day. Garry Owen, Neil Meyer D Co. Trustee

From Your HHC Trustee, For those of us from HHC that have attended previous reunions, I can say with confidence that a good time was had by all. Some of us seeing individuals that we may have not seen in 50 years. Even though we may have not had the biggest number of attendees, compared to the other companies, we still managed to enjoy ourselves.

Over the years we have traveled all over the United States. Many of us would not have the opportunity to do so if it weren't for the reunions. For those of you who haven't been to any of our reunions, you are missing out on a great time. Especially if the reunion site happens to be in your state or neighboring state, traveling isn't an issue. No need to travel half way across the country.

With the reunion scheduled for 2018 in Pennsylvania, all of us from the east coast don't need to travel far. For those of you who have been getting e-mail updates about the reunion, and plan to attend, make sure to book your reservation early.

What are you waiting for.....Hope to see you there. Joseph Dzikas Jr, HHC Trustee

To the troopers of the 5/7 Cavalry, It is an honor to be writing you all but I write with sad news. My father, John D. Lord, was a trooper with the 5/7 Cav in Vietnam in 67/68. The stories he told me were so cool and so sad but you could see the pride in his eyes when he mentioned the 7th Cavalry. But I am sad to say that my Dad passed on February 4, 2016. He had a lot of good in him and my family and I miss him every day. So, I wanted to write to you all. I'm sorry I didn't do it sooner to let you know he passed. I enjoy the newsletter and if I can continue getting it I'd like to. Thank you very much. Joseph Lord PS: Garry Owen

Dear Sir, I'm sorry to inform you that my husband died 4-14-15 of his service related injuries in Vietnam. I only now noticed the small blurb about dues. I've attached Lee's address label so that you may save a few pennies on his newsletter.

I believe what you do is so valuable. While my husband chose not to participate, those that do reap many rewards.

2018 Reunion XIV: SHERATON PITTSBURGH HOTEL at STATION SQUARE

The Reunion Planning Team met at the Sheraton Pittsburgh Hotel at Station Square in January, reviewed the facilities, negotiated and signed the contract for our 2018 reunion. The above photo gives you an idea of this outstanding property and its surrounding location. This photo is taken from the top of Mt. Washington which is just behind the hotel. Access to the top of the mountain is via two passenger inclines and vehicles if you choose that method. The inclines are near the hotel and within easy walking distance. In addition to the restaurants in the hotel there are more than a dozen within walking distance of the hotel and even more on Mt. Washington.

Check out the hotel's web site (<http://www.sheratonpittsburghstationssquare.com>) and get even more information on the hotel amenities and the surrounding area of shops and dining facilities.

Our contracted reunion week runs from Saturday, July 28 through Saturday, August 4, 2018. Our 5/7 Cav Association room rate is $105.00 per night. Our room rate is good three days before the reunion week and three days after.

The hotel has established a web link that will allow you to book directly online. The web link follows:

<https://www.starwoodmeeting.com/events/start.action?id=1702069037&key=69B8A3A>

Reservations can also be made by calling 800-325-3535.

Make sure you identify yourself as a member of the 5/7 Cavalry Association.

The Pittsburgh Visitors Guide and Free Trip Planning Guide is available at the following web site:

<https://www.visitpittsburgh.com/plan-your-trip/visitors-guide/>

Check out the Things To Do Section on the Visitors web site. You'll be amazed at all the attractions, shopping and things to see and do in Pittsburgh.

One of the special places that the Planning Team checked out during our visit was the Soldiers & Sailors Memorial Hall & Museum that is on the campus of the University of Pittsburgh. The museum commemorates the men and women from Allegheny County who have served in every U.S. war since the Civil War. Styled after the ancient mausoleum of Halicarnassus, one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World, Soldiers & Sailors is the largest memorial in the United States dedicated to America's military personnel. We have reserved a special room in the Memorial for our Saturday Memorial Service. We believe all our members, family and guests will be pleased with this special setting.

Book your room early so we can lock up all the rooms in our block and have the whole hotel to ourselves.

Alpha Company '66 Gathers Again for Their Mini Reunion

Alpha Company met up again this June in the Northern Kentucky (Greater Cincinnati, OH Area) and drew a nice crowd of 38 troopers and family from Kentucky, Ohio, Illinois, Michigan, Washington State, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Florida, New York, Oregon, Georgia, Missouri and New Mexico. Notably, over 21 young men from Northern Kentucky entered the Army together in 1965 and helped form the 5/7th Cavalry. Another large contingent hailed from Michigan.

Bill Purdy, Joe Williams, and Chester Millay prepared a 5-day agenda that started with a Wednesday evening kick-off ("fall in!") at Chester's house for socializing around pizza, wings and drinks.

Thursday, the group attended an Independent League baseball game to watch the Florence Freedom (KY) take on the Shaumburg (IL) Boomers. As special guest, A-Company was seated and recognized at the game, and A-Company's initial Commanding Officer, Captain AJ Wise threw out the first pitch to launch the game.

Friday found the group at the historic and nostalgic Greyhound Tavern's private dining room for an always well prepared feast. Yet the highlights of the evening were several special remarks.

Jim Harman gave a well-earned tribute to Ed Canady for the "Special Ops" work Ed performed after serving as A-Company's Executive Officer under Captain Wise 50+ years ago. Then Ed himself honored Captain Wise for his command and leadership in Vietnam, and presented to the Captain the well acclaimed art print of The Vietnam Wall, Reflections, by Lee Teter.

A third presentation broke the solemnity of the moment. Elinore Canady presented Jackie Wise with a memento from the University of Florida. Significant? It seems that AJ is a big Florida State (Seminoles) fan while AJ's wife Jackie supports the cross-state rival University of Florida (Gators). Hmmm, ... wonder who's in command at the Wise household ... probably depends on who wins the game.

On Saturday many of the attendees gathered at the local Kenton County (KY) Veterans Memorial to remember 1966 A-Company's veterans, among all veterans, who lost their lives fighting for freedom around the world. John Kruzekamp paid special tribute to those 1966 A-Company troopers from Kenton County who are memorialized there in granite - Carl Mueller, Donald Duncan, and Clarence (Guy) McNay.

That evening, everyone gathered at Chester's house again for more fellowship, fun and food. Jim Flannagan's two large "Army Scrapbooks" brought back a lot of memories for the guys, and a heightened appreciation of those times for the ladies. Then Sunday, the group gathered at Chester's place one more time for breakfast and goodbyes.

1966 A-Company's Larry Reel had passed away earlier this year. Many troopers from A Company had attended Larry's funeral and served as an Honor Guard for Larry and his family. Particularly special throughout the week, Larry's wife Dottie and son Chris attended most all of the reunion's events.

5th Squadron Report

5th Squadron Report

7th Cavalry Regimental Ball last Thursday was a rousing success. Ball was held in the Savannah Marriott Hotel and was attended by 350 plus officers, NCO's and troopers and their wives/girl friends. The cavalrymen were attired in blues, bow ties, Stetsons and spurs (for those who were spur qualified). Connie and I were invited to participate in the receiving line where we met at least 3/4 of the troopers and their guests. Troopers and their guests were very polite and the ladies were very well dressed.

Speaker was BG John Richardson, ADC-M, in 3ID. I was introduced and extended greetings to all from the association and expressed our pride in all that the Squadron had accomplished in the past year.

Posting of the colors, honors, the Grog Ceremony, toasts were all handled very professionally. The evening was great fun and we continue to be impressed with the morale and the overall professionalism of the Squadron.

The whole evening was a great credit to the Squadron, to the Division and to the US Army.

Garry Owen,
Larry Budge

CSM Kenny relinquished responsibility as the Senior Enlisted Leader of the 189th Combined Arms Training Brigade as he and his wife Lori are enroute to West Point where he will serve as the CSM for USSC. Both were thrilled that CH Mason participated in the ceremony, as they served together with the 5-7 Cavalry in Iraq.
