PRESIDENT'S REPORT

By now you are probably aware of the passing of the legendary LTG Harold (Hal) G. Moore who recently left this earthly world and permanently retired to Fiddlers Green. He did so much to help our first battalion commander, then LTC Ted Swett, train and equip our battalion for its deployment to and service in Vietnam. On behalf of our Association the executive officers have made a memorial donation of $500 to the Ia Drang Scholarship Fund, which was established in 1994 to help the children and grandchildren of the veterans of the Ia Drang battles. They came home and were alive to have children in no small part because of LTG Moore's tactical skills, his leadership and his personal presence and bravery on the ground at LZ X-Ray. There may be no more worthy endeavor than to provide for the future through the education of children.

The executive officers have successfully negotiated a great deal with the Sheraton Hotel in Pittsburgh for the next reunion to be held there in 2018. Allen Patrick is our lead negotiator and he pushed for and secured all that we wanted and need for a successful event that is under the control of the hotel. He was ably supported by a strong team including Jerry Houston, Cliff Wheeler, Karl Haartz, and Don and Karen Shipley. I was there for my first time to observe and learn how the negotiations are done. I wouldn't want to be sitting across the table from Allen and this team in any negotiations! The outstanding ground team of Jim and Ann Miller and Walt and Dolores Zimmerman were also present. In addition to making the initial contact to interest the hotel in our business the ground team has already begun to compile sights to see and things to do so that you have a memorable and enjoyable time during the reunion. They already have identified a spectacular location for one of the highlights of every reunion, our Memorial Service on Saturday morning. So please plan to attend if you are able to travel. We aren't getting any younger and we need to renew our brotherhood as often as we can while we still can.

Speaking of getting older and knowing we all have a place reserved at the Fiddlers Green permanent retirement home for old Cav guys, this is a good time to think about how we can continue to take good care of ourselves and make sure we have done all we can for those we love and will eventually leave behind. If you haven't met with a VA service representative or been seen at a VA medical facility for Agent Orange screening I strongly encourage you to do so sooner rather than later. Agent Orange screening is important because so many illnesses that can be the cause of death are presumed to be service-connected due to exposure to Agent Orange in Vietnam. A very useful government guide called Federal Benefits for Veterans, Dependents and Survivors can be found on-line at the following URL: https://www.va.gov/opa/publications/benefits_book/2016_Federal_Benefits_for_Veterans.pdf

Download a copy and don't miss out anything for which you or your loved ones may be eligible.

Keep your dues current and start making plans for the next reunion in Pittsburgh. See you there.

Garryowen!

“KRAZY” Karl's Report

Hope all had a Merry Christmas and Happier New Year. I had plans for Christmas & New Year's but Murphy's Law took over and I stayed home.

About a month ago, I went to Pittsburgh, PA for our reunion planning meeting. Having not been to Pittsburgh in 30 years I wasn't looking forward to the trip. I have been to mill cities' before, not impressed. While driving into Pittsburgh I began to notice that things were different from 30 years ago. There's no smoke, smog or soot anywhere. Matter of fact there aren't any steel mills either.

Following the young voice on my GPS I shot through downtown and to the Sheraton Hotel which is located just above the Monongahela River. As I pulled into the parking lot (being a country boy the expensive parking lot), I looked across the convergence of the Allegheny & Monongahela into the Ohio River there was a bunch of bridges and 3 Rivers Stadium and the Ball park. This place is really neat compared to what I had expected. By the end of our reunion planning meetings and after some good food, I decided I like the location.

Two (2) blocks from the hotel is the passenger incline (elevator) which takes you up to Mt. Washington. There are restaurants, shopping, etc. here and a super view overlooking the city. We will be moving the Memorial Service on Saturday to a beautiful off site facility on the Campus of Pittsburgh University. I'll let Jerry Houston tell you more about this. To my Clemson friends pleased don't be offended.

New medical issues from exposure to fish in Vietnam. There is a little parasite called the Liver Fluke which we get from eating raw fish from South-east Asia. Anyone that ate the nasty rotten fish sauce that the Vietnamese put on their rice could be exposed. This parasite lives in your bile ducts and when it decides to it causes bile duct cancer. Go to the VA and get checked for the Liver Fluke. The VA knows you are coming. This is one time I am glad I hate fish and don't eat it. There is an article in the Vietnam Veterans of America newsletter this month. http://vvaveteran.org/34-2/34-2_parasites.html

Jackets & Rings - Being that I am a little off the wall and like different types of stuff, I have found a goldsmith who likes a challenge. I had him make me two custom rings, which I have added some pictures of. He will make them to your specs. Again they are not inexpensive but they are done for you and

Membership VP’s Report

Father time keeps ticking and we can’t stop the clock. What we can do however is make sure we’re taking advantage of the VA and those regular health checkups. We want you healthy so you can come join us in Pittsburgh in 2018.

Our ability to update our members by e-mail is getting better. We now have an e-mail service that lets us send out emails to our large member base without them getting kicked back. We pay for the service but it’s worth it because it cuts down on dropped e-mails and it lets us know when we need to check for updated e-mails.

At present, we have over 1,050 members that have shared their e-mail address with the association. Updates go out each Friday to everyone on the e-mail list whether they are current or not on their dues. Typical updates include member’s address changes, news of mini reunions taking place, reports of member’s health issues or passing and other important news and announcements.

We also give you periodic updates of the upcoming reunion and pass along information that the company trustees want to get out to the troops that served in their company.

To add your e-mail address to the e-mail distribution list send me your contact info at 57don@24ktravel.com. Make sure you include the company you served in so the database can be updated too.

For those of you receiving a printed newsletter in the mail check the address label on your newsletter to determine if your dues are up to date. If the label is incorrect let us know so we can correct the database. Sometimes your dues are sent in and the newsletter goes out before the dues updates have been recorded.

If you prefer to receive your newsletter via the internet let us know so we can take you off the printed newsletter list. That will help us cut down on the printing bill.

Those of you receiving the newsletter via the internet can check their dues status by sending me (57don@24ktravel.com) or our Treasurer, Dick Baker (Treasurer57cav@gmail.com) an e-mail requesting your dues status.

If you need to update your dues, please make out your checks to 5/7 Cav Association and send to:

Pittsburgh is confirmed as the site for Reunion XIV. The Hotel is the Sheraton Pittsburgh Hotel at Station Square. The reunion dates are from Sunday, July 29 through Saturday, August 4, 2018. Our contracted room rate is $105.00 per night which includes a continental breakfast in the hospitality room each morning.

Reunion Reservations can be made now by calling the following Sheraton number: 800-325-3535. When making your reservations be sure to identify yourself as a member the 5/7 Cavalry Association and that you want the group rate. There is no charge if you need to cancel your reservations if it is done 72 hours in advance. Book early. Early reservations help us fill up our room block and limits the number of rooms available to other groups during our reunion week. By filling up our room block we essentially get the whole hotel to ourselves.

At each reunion we have more and more members show up that have been holding back for years only to realize how great the reunions can be. Make Pittsburgh the reunion you want to attend. There are many sites and attractions in Pittsburgh and the surrounding area that are going to help make this one of the best reunions ever. You’ll read more about it later in the newsletter.

5th Squadron Update

LTC Mahaffey briefs MG Budge

5-7 CAV returned from Europe to some well-deserved time off before resuming a demanding training schedule in preparation for a rotation at the National Training Center (NTC) in April 2017. Within two months of arriving back at Fort Stewart, 5-7 Troopers conducted gunnery on a mix of HMMWVs and Bradleys. Each troop qualified their crews and sections before incorporating organic mortars and a section of AH-64 Apache helicopters in support for platoon qualification. The AH-64s were flown by pilots of 3-17 Heavy Attack Reconnaissance Squadron who will be accompanying 1st Brigade to the NTC. Subsequently, 5-7 CAV has worked to incorporate 3-17 CAV as much as possible into training in order to develop a close working relationships with the pilots who will be maneuvering with and alongside 5-7 CAV.

Following gunnery, the squadron used the remainder of 2016 to focus on individual and section Trooper tasks. Platoon leaders took the opportunity to plan a week of training to develop their new Troopers' dismounted skills including land navigation, communication systems, and dismounted reconnaissance. The new Troopers then were challenged in 5-7 CAV's spur ride which incorporated scouts from 3-17 CAV, 1-64 Armor, 3-69 Armor, and 6-8 Cavalry. Spur candidates underwent three skills testing lanes, a written test, and numerous physical challenge-days of grueling testing including a stress shoot, day and night land navigation, culminating in a twelve mile road march. In total, 88 Troopers earned their spurs which were presented at a spur dinner in 5-7 CAV's new motor pool.

Following the holiday period, the squadron's leadership traveled to Fort Irwin, CA to participate in the leader training program with the brigade and other battalion leadership. Besides touring the training area and logistics facilities, the squadron staff participated in a planning exercise concluding in a simulated mission. Coaches from the National Training Center provided feedback on the staff processes to further develop the leaders present.

Back at Fort Stewart, GA, 5-7 CAV's leadership participated in the 3rd Infantry Division Cavalry Summit which brought leaders from the division cavalry organizations together with brigade and division-level leadership as well as experts from the Maneuver and Fires Centers of Excellence to discuss how the division will conduct reconnaissance and security. This event built on the common understanding 5-7 CAV had built with 3-17 CAV during a symposium hosted by 3-17 before the New Year. As force structures for both ground and air cavalry have developed, leaders from both organizations worked to refine their tactics to integrate capabilities from the other organization.

The troops began training in January with small arms during which all Troopers qualified on either their M4 rifle or M9 pistol. The Squadron then embarked on a truncated gunnery progression to qualify crews, sections, and platoons which had gained new leaders since the gunnery in the fall. Once their platoons were all qualified, each line troop conducted a troop-level combined live fire exercise which tested the troop's ability to maneuver together with mortar, artillery, engineer, and aviation support for the first time since returning from Europe.

The staff is currently preparing to conduct their final simulated exercise which will be their last chance to practice before NTC. Troops have begun packing containers for transport to California. 5-7 Cavalry is ready to apply the expertise built through three rotations to Europe and the last four months of hard training at the National Training Center.

Troopers practice medical evacuation during spur ride

The staff rehearses an operation at the NTC during leader training program

On the horizon is the Squadron Change of Command, another NTC Rotation, and a deployment to Korea.

A couple of key dates coming up for the squadron will be:

11 MAR - Family Spur Ride

18-22 MAY (Tentative- awaiting funds approval) - Squadron Indian Wars Staff Ride to Little Big Horn

01 JUN - Squadron Ball

08 JUN (Tentative- not official yet) - Squadron Change of Command (incoming Commander, LTC John Horning)

FIDDLER'S GREEN

Lieutenant General Harold (Hal) Gregory Moore Jr, passed away peacefully at age 94 on February 10, 2017, at his home in Auburn, AL. He is survived by three sons and two daughters, Harold Gregory III (Evelyn), (LTC) Stephen (Donna), Julie Moore Orłowski (Leo), Cecile Moore Rainey (Terry), (COL) David (Teresa), and by his sister Betty Karp and brother Ballard Moore. He also leaves twelve grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. He was predeceased by his wife Julie Compton and by his brother William Moore. Hal was born on February 13, 1922, in Bardstown KY to Harold and Mary (Crume) Moore. Hal started a 32-year military career upon entry into the United States Military Academy in 1942, convincing a Congressman from Georgia to swap Hal's Kentucky appointment to the Naval Academy for one to West Point.

Upon graduation in 1945, he served on occupation duty in Japan; he returned to Fort Bragg where he met and married the great love of his life, Julie Compton. He tested parachutes, surviving multiple malfunctions to include being hung up and towed behind a plane.

Deployed to the Korean War in 1952, he commanded an Infantry rifle and heavy mortar company in the 7th Infantry Division and was awarded two Bronze Star Medals for Valor.

Subsequent assignments included teaching tactics at West Point, developing airborne and air assault equipment in the Pentagon, and a tour of duty in Norway where he planned the ground defense of northern Germany, Denmark, and Scandinavia.

Upon completion of the course of study at the Naval War College, Hal took command of the 2nd Battalion, 23rd Infantry at Fort Benning, GA. Fourteen months later, the unit was designated the 1st Battalion, 7th Cavalry (Custer's old unit) and deployed to Vietnam with the 1st Cavalry Division in 1965.

Hal is best known for his leadership in the first major battle between the US and the People's Army of Vietnam (PAVN) that occurred in the remote Ia Drang Valley of the Central Highlands in November 1965. Within 20 minutes of the first shot, the 7th Cavalry, vastly outnumbered, was assaulted by hundreds of enemy furiously determined to overrun it.

After a three-day bloodbath, the enemy quit the field leaving over six hundred of their dead littering the battleground.

Hal was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross, the nation's second-highest award for valor, for his actions during the fight. Hal then assumed command of the 3rd Brigade of the 1st Cavalry Division and led it through several major campaigns in 1966 earning another Bronze Star Medal for Valor for carrying wounded to safety under "withering small and automatic weapons fire."

In 1968, Hal pinned on his first star and led the planning for the Army's withdrawal from Vietnam.

He returned to Korea in 1969 and was promoted to Major General and given command of the 7th Infantry Division to "straighten out that Division" after it was fractured with insubordination and riots. Over the next year, Hal rebuilt the Division back into an effective fighting force.

In 1971, he took command of the Training Center and Fort Ord, CA in the era of the Vietnam antiwar demonstrations, associated drug problems, continuing racial tensions and the transition to the "modern volunteer Army." He applied lessons learned from the 7th Infantry to create another successful outcome.

In 1974, Hal was promoted to Lieutenant General and assigned to the Pentagon as the Deputy Chief of Staff for Personnel for the Army where he was most proud of actions he took to rebuild an NCO Corps almost destroyed by the Vietnam War.

Following retirement from active duty in 1977, he worked as the Executive Vice President of the Crested Butte Mountain Resort in Colorado.

In 1981, working with his co-author, Joe Galloway, he turned his attention to the research that underpinned their 1992 New York Times Bestselling book on the Ia Drang battles, We Were Soldiers Once and Young. In 2002, the book was the basis of the acclaimed movie, We Were Soldiers, where Mel Gibson portrayed Hal.

After being devastated by the loss of his wife, Julie, in 2004, Hal withdrew from public life but worked with Joe Galloway to produce the 2008 sequel to the first book; We are Soldiers Still: A Journey Back to the Battlefields of Vietnam.

Hal was a dedicated outdoorsman who loved to ski, hike, camp and fish and was most proud of the fact that he "infected" all his children with the same passion. In fact, since Julie was not close to labor, Hal was fishing in a local bass tournament in 1952 on the morning his son Steve was born. That Hal won a nice Shakespeare reel did nothing to mitigate the trouble he was in upon his return.

Hal was known for his finely tuned sense of humor; earning the nickname of "Captain Fun" from his grandchildren. He would routinely send funny postcards of "jackalopes" and hide small toys around the house in anticipation of visits.

Hal was personally modest with a deep love for soldiers. When his hometown announced it would celebrate his return from Vietnam in 1966 with an elaborate "Hal Moore Day," he refused to participate unless the event was refocused to be a "Vietnam Veteran's Day."

A funeral Mass was held on Friday, February 17 at St. Michaels Roman Catholic Church in Auburn, AL and was followed by a memorial service at the National Infantry Museum at Fort Benning, GA, with interment following at the Fort Benning Post Cemetery.

The family hosted a reception at the National Infantry Museum after the burial service. At Hal's request, in lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to the Ia Drang Scholarship Fund. Hal and Joe established the fund in 1994 using proceeds from the book and speaking engagements with the purpose of supporting the education of the children and grandchildren of the veterans of the Ia Drang battles. The fund has awarded over $430,000 in grants to date. Donations should be sent to the Ia Drang Scholarship Fund, c/o Executive Director, 1st Cavalry Division Association, 302 North Main, Copperas Cove, TX 76522.

LETTERS

The Family of LTG Harold G. Moore

Dear Julie, Cecile, David, Stephen, Harold, and your children and grandchildren,

Please accept condolences from the members of the 5th Battalion 7th Cavalry Association, many of whom served with and knew LTG Hal Moore. Our battalion did not deploy to Vietnam in 1965 when General Moore led the 1/7 Cav from Fort Benning to Vietnam. Instead the 5/7 Cav joined the 3rd Brigade, 1st Cavalry Division in 1966 around the time he finished his battalion command and served as part of that brigade for several years. Our Association has biennial reunions and General Moore spoke at one of our early reunions and was very close to our first battalion commander, LTC Trevor "Ted" Swett.

To honor General Moore's military service and his life we have made a donation to the Ia Drang Scholarship Fund in his memory. The children and grandchildren of the men he led and brought home are one of the greatest legacies of his courage and leadership during the battle at LZ X-Ray and for the rest of his time in Vietnam as a commander of brave young Americans who trusted him and each other with their lives. Nothing matters more than educating children for they will inherit the country he helped shape and they will be better prepared because of this scholarship fund and the support it has provided and will continue to provide to so many.

We share your sense of loss for a great American hero and we grieve as well. We are all also very proud to have served in the 7th Cavalry and to be part of that proud lineage to which General Hal Moore contributed a magnificent chapter of courage and battlefield success. So as you mourn his loss please know that he has thousands of admirers who once wore the same uniform with the same big yellow shoulder patch as he so proudly wore. He will remain an inspiration and an example for all of us so long as we live.

Respectfully,

Howard T. Prince II
Brigadier General, USA, Retired
President, 5th Battalion 7th Cavalry Association

Hand written note from family of Charles Bunton

Thank you so much for the beautiful floral arrangement for our dad's funeral. They were very much appreciated!

2018 Reunion XIV: SHERATON PITTSBURGH HOTEL at STATION SQUARE

The Reunion Planning Team met at the Sheraton Pittsburgh Hotel at Station Square in January, reviewed the facilities, negotiated and signed the contract for our 2018 reunion. The above photo gives you an idea of this outstanding property and its surrounding location. This photo is taken from the top of Mt. Washington which is just behind the hotel. Access to the top of the mountain is via two passenger inclines and vehicles if you choose that method. The inclines are near the hotel and within easy walking distance. In addition to the restaurants in the hotel there are more than a dozen within walking distance of the hotel and even more on Mt. Washington.

Check out the hotel's web site (<http://www.sheratonpittsburghstationssquare.com>) and get even more information on the hotel amenities and the surrounding area of shops and dining facilities.

Our contracted reunion week runs from Sunday, July 28 through Saturday, August 4, 2018. Our 5/7 Cav Association room rate is $105.00 per night. Our room rate is good three days before the reunion week and three days after.

The hotel has established a web link that will allow you to book directly online. The web link follows:

<https://www.starwoodmeeting.com/events/start.action?id=1702069037&key=69B8A3A>

Reservations can also be made by calling 800-325-3535.

Make sure you identify yourself as a member of the 5/7 Cavalry Association.

The Pittsburgh Visitors Guide and Free Trip Planning Guide is available at the following web site:

<https://www.visitpittsburgh.com/plan-your-trip/visitors-guide/>

Check out the Things To Do Section on the Visitors web site. You'll be amazed at all the attractions, shopping and things to see and do in Pittsburgh.

One of the special places that the Planning Team checked out during our visit was the Soldiers & Sailors Memorial Hall & Museum that is on the campus of the University of Pittsburgh. The museum commemorates the men and women from Allegheny County who have served in every U.S. war since the Civil War. Styled after the ancient mausoleum of Halicarnassus, one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World, Soldiers & Sailors is the largest memorial in the United States dedicated to America's military personnel. We have reserved a special room in the Memorial for our Saturday Memorial Service. We believe all our members, family and guests will be pleased with this special setting.

Book your room early so we can lock up all the rooms in our block and have the whole hotel to ourselves.

C Company West Coast Mini Reunion

The Annual California 5/7th CAV Mini-Reunion took place March 4, 2017. This year, as last year, Jack and Ann Boyt hosted our group aboard their yacht, The Mauretania, for a 3 hour cruise of San Pedro Harbor. It is a wooden boat built in 1947, similar to the Presidential yacht that sailed the Potomac for many years. They provided a wonderful array of appetizers: fine cheeses, Italian cold cuts, olives, and dried fruits. The main course was beef sliders, mini mac and cheese, buffalo and plain chicken wings, finishing with mini chocolate bread puddings for dessert. Wines, beers, sodas, and water were in abundance.

Our group of twenty-five 5/7 CAV and family members included some new members from Northern California as well as members from North Dakota and New Hampshire. All had a great time catching up, and thoroughly enjoyed the cruise. During the cruise we sailed past the Battleship Iowa and the Fire Boat Station which we visited last year. All in all we can't thank Jack & Ann enough for the wonderful day they provided for our Mini-Reunion!
